

The Department of Physics (<http://physics.syr.edu>) invites applications for a tenure-track assistant professor position in theoretical cosmology or particle astrophysics. The department currently has strong programs spanning cosmology and particle physics, with theoretical, experimental and computational components. We expect the successful applicant to have interests that overlap with and complement these ongoing research efforts. Applicants should have a clear record of research accomplishments and a strong interest and ability to teach effectively at both the graduate and undergraduate levels.

Candidates should visit <http://www.sujobopps.com>, search for Assistant Professor/Physics (job #024592), and apply electronically. All applications require a CV which includes both research and teaching statements, and a list of three or four professional references. If you have any questions please contact facultysearch@phy.syr.edu. In addition, three letters of recommendation should be forwarded to facultysearch@phy.syr.edu or mailed to Cosmology Search Committee, Physics Department, Syracuse University, 201 Physics Bldg, Syracuse, NY 13244-1020.

Review of applications will begin December 1, 2008, and will continue until the position is filled. Syracuse University is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer. Members of minority groups and women are especially encouraged to apply.
